“Family Worship”

Deuteronomy 6:4-9, Ephesians 6:4

- 1. Based upon Deuteronomy 6, who has been given the primary task of teaching children about the Lord? What role does the church play in this process?
- 2. According to Deuteronomy 6, when and where should we be teaching our children about God’s Word?
- 3. In what ways has COVID-19 given us an opportunity to reevaluate our priorities? Is there anything you now appreciate more, or areas you plan to focus on more, once life becomes “normal” again?
- 4. In what ways did you feel challenged or encouraged, from either the biblical exhortations or church history, to begin or to continue worshiping the Lord as a family?
- 5. What are some practical steps you can take to become more consistent in family worship? Or, what might you be able to share with younger families from your own experience?
