Life Application Questions

1. What is one thing that stood out to you or challenged you from this week's sermon?
2. Why do we need to know God before we can fully understand injustice?
3. Is the idea that God is just comforting or concerning to you? Why?
4. Has there ever been a time when your idea of justice and the biblical truth about justice were different? How did you reconcile those feelings?
5. Does justice mean forgive and forget? Why is it important that God confronts evil and sin and holds people accountable?
6. In what way does God's justice include both retribution and restoration? How can you align your reaction to injustice to reflect the character of God?
7. Why is it important that we see God's justice through the lens of the gospel?
