“The Compassionate Christ”

John 11:17-36

1. What does it mean to say that Jesus is the resurrection and the life? (v. 25) And, what is the practical application for our lives?
2. Why does Jesus allow Lazarus to die? Why did He allow those He loved to experience four days of grief?
3. What do we learn about grief, where we can take it, and who can handle it based on Martha's response?
4. In the text, we see Mary and Martha approaching Jesus in very different ways. What does Jesus's unique response to each of these sisters teach us about how we ought to respond to those who mourn and grieve?
5. Why does Jesus weep at Lazarus's death?
6. What hope and encouragement do you find in that Jesus enters into our weeping and pain?
