Life Application Questions

1. What is one thing that stood out to you or challenged you from this week's sermon?
2. What wrong presumption had the people of Israel made about the Day of the Lord?
3. In what way was Israel failing to be the people God had called them to be?
4. What is the fundamental nature of injustice? And, how is racism related to neglecting the poor?
5. How does the concept of corporate responsibility apply to systemic racism?
6. The people of Israel were affirming their covenant identity while ignoring injustice. As a New Covenant community, how do we live out the gospel and apply it to issues surrounding ethnic enmity?
7. Rather than turning a blind eye to the injustice of racism, or being passive, why should the Church be leading the way in actively seeking and demonstrating racial reconciliation?
