“This is My Story”

Acts 17:24-27

- 1. It’s been said that history is really His Story. Throughout Scripture, in both the Old and New Testament, God speaks to us through true stories. Why do you think storytelling is so important to God?
- 2. During Sunday’s sermon, we surveyed five of the major storylines of Scripture. Is there one particular storyline that resonates with you most? If so, which one and why?
- 3. Among the biblical storylines we highlighted on Sunday, what are some things God is teaching us about Himself or about ourselves?
- 4. While considering your own testimony, how can you begin sharing your story of faith in a way that more closely identifies with the gospel-centered storylines of Scripture?
- 5. Within your own faith journey, is there one person whose faith story or influence played a pivotal role in your own story? If so, who would that be and why?
