“Things We Take For Granted”

Psalm 139:1-18

1. Because God is Omniscient, what three things does verses 1-5 point out that he knows about each one of us? What conclusion from verse 1 can we draw from this?
2. Since God is Omnipresent according to verses 5-12 , what are some times in our lives when God is near us even when it doesn't seem like he is?
3. What 3 phases of our lives does verses 13–18 remind us that God's eyes are on us. Why would this be important to know?
4. In verses 23 and 24, the Psalmist invites God to search his own heart and point out those areas of his life that needs attention. As God has shined his flashlight of righteousness on you, what are some areas in your spiritual life that needs your attention?
